The presbytery-wide Pentecost art installation is on tour throughout the Presbytery of Olympia and will visit the Chapel in October.

Our Pentecost call to prayer

May 28 - July 16 continues to bear fruit

as we focus on the chapel's mission;

exploring missional leadership and serving the community. On June 28 Chapel by the Sea celebrated 63 years of service in Christ's ministry

as a mainline Presbyterian (PCUSA) presence.

Come, Holy Spirit as we seek to follow Jesus' Way, Truth, Life.

Praise God for blessings bestowed and answers to prayer.

COMPUTER UPDATE

Thank you to our many gracious donors

who contributed to the fundraiser for the chapel's new computer. Yay! You did it!

We have met our goal. You answered the call.

UPCOMING EVENTS AT THE CHAPEL

ADOPT A HIGHWAY - SUNDAY JULY 16

The chapel has signed up to keep our two-mile stretch of SR 109 litter free.

Our first work party will meet Sunday, July 16 after worship.

Lunch will be provided in the chapel hall and after a short safety orientation we'll gather our gear and get to work. If you'd like to sign up to help for an hour or two please let Pastor Linda know by Thursday, July 13.

As an earth care congregation we are called to be good stewards of God's creation. Invite your neighbors and friends to help in this community clean-up to keep our highways and byways pristine. RSVP by July 13 to reserve your kit and lunch.

SAVE THE DATE - SEPTEMBER 1 and 2

CHURCH RUMMAGE SALE 10 am - 4 pm

Save your items until we have space at the chapel
to receive them towards the end of August.

No large/heavy items can be accepted

In Christ's ministry,
Pastor Linda
